

SSMA John Park Graduate Student Convention Travel Award (up to $400 per award)

To qualify for this Award, a graduate student must attend and present at the SSMA Annual Convention, and must have incurred personal expenses to attend.

To apply, the graduate student must complete the Expenses Report form, which includes a listing of the expenses incurred to attend the Convention and details of financial support to attend the Convention from outside sources, for example, the student's college/department or travel grants offered by the student's university. The completed form must be submitted to office@ssma.org prior to the first day of the Convention.

Each year at the Convention, one or more graduate students who submitted their Expenses Report Form and meet the criteria for the Award will be randomly selected from all students who submitted the Expenses Report Form and meet the criteria to receive the Award. The maximum Award will be $400. Lesser amounts will be awarded to those selected with personal expenses less than $400.
